LIFX Z TV Launches Worldwide, Offering TV and Gaming Rig Backlighting

SUMMARY

- LIFX has launched its Z TV product, a backlighting solution for flat screen televisions and gaming rigs
- Today's launch fulfills a commitment to ship Z TV in time for the Black Friday/Cyber Monday sales
- The launch of Z TV follows on from LIFX's recently announced integration with Razer™, with Z TV expected to be popular with the gaming community. Z TV is also compatible with the Razer Chroma Connector.

20 November 2019 - Adelaide, South Australia

Buddy Technologies Limited ("Company") (BUD.ASX), a leader in IoT and cloud-based solutions for making spaces smarter is pleased to announce the launch and immediate customer availability of LIFX Z TV, first announced earlier this year (refer to ASX announcement on 30 August 2019).

LIFX Z TV is a smart, connected backlighting (or bias lighting) product for flat screen televisions and can also be used by gamers to light up their 'battle station'. Like all LIFX products, it is internet connected, remotely controllable using the LIFX mobile app, and works with voice assistants like Amazon Alexa, Google Nest Hub and Apple Siri/HomeKit. Priced at US$69.99 in the US, A$99.99 in Australia, £64.99 in the UK and €69.99 in Europe, LIFX Z TV is now available in all markets.
